December at Zion...

Last Saturday afternoon and evening we opened our doors of the church to welcome those from our community into our sacred space to enjoy the beauty and history of Zion. Thank you to Barbara Porterfield for her posting her well written and in-depth history of our stained glass windows. In addition, we are thankful for Barbara, Urath Gibson, Randy Hilton, and Katherine Hortenstine for serving as docents and welcoming all who visited our church.

On Sunday following our services we gathered in our parlors for Coffee & Cocoa together with Cookies & Carols. Heartfelt thanks to Royal Wilson for her vision and organization of the event. And thank you to Ned Wilson for accompanying our caroling on the piano. By all accounts the gathering was a wonderful success and the delicious cookies and treats along with warm cocoa and fellowship were enjoyed by all!

We will be gathering at the rectory at 7 pm to head out into the neighborhood to sing Christmas carols for our neighbors! Plan to join us as we connect with our neighbors and spread Christmas cheer and good will—caroling sheets will be available, but don't forget your flash light or a battery operated candle! Following the caroling, light refreshments and fellowship will be enjoyed in the rectory. All are welcome!
