Adopt-A-Family Tree, Ornaments Available This Sunday...

Zion has adopted three families for this Christmas. If you would like to help make Christmas a little brighter for these families, please take an “ornament” from the tree in the Narthex, purchase the gift on the tag and return the gift—wrapped and with a gift receipt, if possible—to underneath the tree or to the church office. Please attach the tag to the outside of the gift. Gifts are needed by December 14, please. If you have any questions, please contact Alice Ellis at (703) 727-2985

December Scheduling News...

Morning Prayer & Conversation in the Parlors

Our weekday service of Morning Prayer will continue through the month of December. We gather in the parlors at 10 am, Monday through Thursday for an informal service of prayers and readings. The short service is followed by conversation. The service lasts about twenty-five minutes. All are welcome, come as you are able!

December 6th | Charles Town Christmas Parade

Join us at Zion as we extend holiday cheer and good will to parade goers. As we seek to do our part sharing the good news, we will be providing parade goers with some hot chocolate and a small Christmas ornament which will include information about our Christmas Eve and Christmas Day services. If you are available to participate in providing hospitality and welcome to parade goers, please contact Alice Ellis at: masudduth@mindspring.com.

While we are certainly hoping you will be able to join us on December 6th, if you are unable to join us for the parade, perhaps you might be available to help put our ornament/service information packages together!

By the way, Ann Paonessa will once again be serving as one of the Christmas Parade Judges. Thank you, Ann! This year's parade begins at 2:00 pm. And, word has it that Santa will be arriving at United Bank at 1:45 pm!

December 13th | Sacred Spaces 3 pm—7 pm

Zion Church will be open to the public during this year's Sacred Spaces tour. We are looking for a couple of individuals to help with guiding people through our church, sharing information about the history of Zion, our stain glass windows, and the Episcopal Church. Printed materials will be available for you to follow and to share with those who come through our doors. We are also hoping to provide some light refreshments to serve our guests. If you have time to serve as a tour guide, provide some hospitality or share your musical gifts, please contact Rev. Johanna.

December 14th | Coffee & Cocoa together with Cookies & Carols in the Parlors

Bring a half-dozen of your favorite Christmas cookies and join us following our 10:30 am service to share in fellowship, enjoy some delicious holiday treats, and sing some of your favorite carols.

December 21st | Greening of the Church following our 10:30 service.

Following our 10:30 am service on December 21st (Advent IV), we will green our sacred space for our Christmas celebration. Plan to stay and help with the preparations or plan to stay and encourage those who are hanging the greens! Light refreshments and coffee will be available. Join us for fun and fellowship!

Caroling & Gathering at the Rectory beginning at 7 pm

We will be gathering at the rectory at 7 pm to head out into the neighborhood to sing Christmas carols for our neighbors! Plan to join us as we connect with our neighbors and spread Christmas cheer and good will—caroling sheets will be available, but don't forget your flash light or a battery operated candle! Following the caroling, light refreshments and fellowship will be enjoyed in the rectory. All are welcome!

December 24th | Christmas Eve

Festival Eucharist at 6 pm

Candlelight Service with Brass Quintet

Please note that this year, we will be having one service on Christmas Eve. The service will be a Candlelight Festival Eucharist with our Choir and a Brass Quintet.
