Candlelight Vigil: Presence and Hope

On Wednesday evening, I joined nearly 200 neighbors in front of the Jefferson County Courthouse for the Candlelight Vigil in Support of Immigrant Rights. Zion was well represented as we stood together, praying for those pushed to the margins of our society.

Because I was wearing my collar, a woman approached me and asked if I would write a letter on behalf of a man who was picked up by ICE in Shepherdstown in October. He was detained overnight in Shepherdstown and transferred the next day to a facility in Pennsylvania, where he remains.

He has lived and worked in Shepherdstown for 25 years. He is a single parent. His detention has left his two sons—both U.S. citizens—and their aging grandfather without their sole source of financial and emotional support.

I told her, “Yes—of course.” We exchanged contact information, and the man’s sister reached out the next afternoon. We spoke by phone about her brother and the many families who share this struggle.

After hearing their story, I wrote a letter in support of his request to return home to Shepherdstown. We spoke again later that evening.

I do not yet know what effect my letter—or others like it—will have on his case. But I do know this: it cost me nothing to show up. And sometimes a simple, steady presence becomes a small candle of hope in someone’s fearful night.

I suspect I received a gift in being there; still, I pray that our presence offered a measure of courage and companionship to this family. I invite your prayers for this father, his children, and their grandfather – and others like them. I invite you to practice the ministry of presence: show up, listen, stand alongside. Consider writing letters of support when invited by trusted advocates. Support local organizations that accompany immigrant families. If opportunities arise, help with practical needs (meals, transportation, childcare).

May we be a people who carry light into fearful places, who choose compassion over indifference, and who remember that every act of love—no matter how small—participates in God’s healing work among us. Peace be with you.

Adopt-A-Family Tree, Ornaments Available in the Narthex...

Adopt-A-Family gifts are needed by December 14. Please leave your wrapped gifts under the tree in the Narthex of the church or drop them by our parish office. If you have any questions, please contact Alice Ellis at (703) 727-2985.

December Scheduling News...

December 13th | Sacred Spaces 3 pm—7 pm

Zion Church will be open to the public during this year's Sacred Spaces tour. We are looking for a couple of individuals to help with guiding people through our church, sharing information about the history of Zion, our stain glass windows, and the Episcopal Church. Printed materials will be available for you to follow and to share with those who come through our doors. We are also hoping to provide some light refreshments to serve our guests. If you have time to serve as a tour guide, provide some hospitality or share your musical gifts, please contact Rev. Johanna.

December 14th | Coffee & Cocoa together with Cookies & Carols in the Parlors

Bring a half-dozen of your favorite Christmas cookies and join us following our 10:30 am service to share in fellowship, enjoy some delicious holiday treats, and sing some of your favorite carols.

December 21st | Greening of the Church following our 10:30 service.

Following our 10:30 am service on December 21st (Advent IV), we will green our sacred space for our Christmas celebration. Plan to stay and help with the preparations or plan to stay and encourage those who are hanging the greens! Light refreshments and coffee will be available. Join us for fun and fellowship!

December 21st | Caroling & Gathering at the Rectory beginning at 7 pm

We will be gathering at the rectory at 7 pm to head out into the neighborhood to sing Christmas carols for our neighbors! Plan to join us as we connect with our neighbors and spread Christmas cheer and good will—caroling sheets will be available, but don't forget your flash light or a battery operated candle! Following the caroling, light refreshments and fellowship will be enjoyed in the rectory. All are welcome!

December 24th | Christmas Eve
Festival Eucharist at 6 pm
Candlelight Service with Brass Quintet

Please note that this year, we will be having one service on Christmas Eve. The service will be a Candlelight Festival Eucharist with our Choir and a Brass Quintet.

December 25th | Christmas Day — Contemplative Eucharist at 9 am
